

Supporting the Air Force Academy in 2022 By Using your Individual Retirement Account

Congress has permanently authorized the direct transfer from individual retirement accounts (IRA) to qualified charities, of which the Air Force Academy Foundation is included.

If you are age 70½ or older on the date of the gift, you may make a qualified charitable distribution (QCD) to us from a standard IRA, not other qualified plans such as a 401k or 403b. Roth IRA transfers are allowed but generally their tax-free earnings negate QCD advantages. QCD gifts exclude the donation amount from your adjusted gross income, which may result in Medicare premium savings and reduce Social Security taxation.

Technicalities – the QCD cannot also be listed as a charitable deduction on your Federal 1040 Schedule A, and the maximum is $100,000. If your spouse has an IRA (and is over age 70½), QCD transfers may be also be made from that IRA. For detailed Internal Revenue Service information refer to IRS publication 590b.

The age at which a required minimum distribution (RMD) must begin is 72 for persons who turned 70½ in the year 2020 and beyond. At age 72 a QCD can consist of your IRA's RMD, either partially or in its entirety.

If you wish to make a donation from your IRA, it will be necessary for you to contact your IRA administrator. They must transfer it directly to the Air Force Academy Foundation; distributions made payable to you will result in reportable income. The most common method of transfer is a check from the IRA administrator, payable to "Air Force Academy Foundation" and sent to 3116 Academy Drive, USAF Academy CO 80840. Our Federal tax ID number is 26-0537053. For wire or DTC transfer contact us for specific instructions.

So we can track your gift intention for proper crediting to your record, please inform us of the amount and origination of the transfer, as some IRA administrators tend to send their checks without notation. It is also possible to use annual IRA transfers for a multi-year pledge.

No matter your age, you can designate the Foundation as the beneficiary of all or a percentage of your IRA and it will pass to us tax-free after your lifetime. Simply contact your IRA administrator or download a form for a change-of-beneficiary.

For more information on using this gift-giving method, contact Dale Zschoche in the Office of Gift Planning at legacy@afacademyfoundation.org or 719.472.2059.

Thank you for your support of our Academy!
